

Tasmania Police Charity Trust Scholarship Fund 2025

Closing Date: Friday 11 April 2025

The Tasmania Police Charity Trust Scholarship Fund provides an opportunity for Tasmanians starting a TasTAFE qualification to seek financial support to help with their access to and participation in training.

The Tasmania Police Charity Trust Scholarship Fund offers up to three scholarships for eligible Tasmanians in each major region of the state – south, north and north-west.

This is part of the Trust's commitment to supporting Tasmanians who may be facing financial barriers in their ability to undertake and complete training at TasTAFE.

Special consideration will be given to applicants who may be prevented from reaching their educational potential because of family or other life circumstances, for example lived experience of family violence"

The scholarships are available to TasTAFE students who have enrolled and start a full qualification in Semester 1, 2025 (including Fee-Free TAFE qualifications).

The scholarship is worth $2,000. The scholarships will directly contribute to a student's ability to undertake and complete a full qualification.

About Tasmania Police Charity Trust

The Tasmania Police Charity Trust has a proud history of helping the most vulnerable and at-risk members of our community.

It was established in 2006 to provide the opportunity for Tasmania Police and State Service employees to raise funds to support children and young people in need. The Trust is administered through the Department of Police, Fire and Emergency Management (DPFEM), so 100% of funds raised go to those who need it.

The Charity Trust is run by a Board and members volunteer their time to identify fundraising opportunities and recipients for donations. Fund raisers include the Charity Trust Bike Ride, Golf Day and quiz nights. And each fortnight DPFEM staff donate to the Trust through salary deductions.
